

The simplest way is to search the keywords of your interest in some articles searching engines or databases:

- Google Scholar (<https://scholar.google.ca/>)
- Web of Science
(<https://lib-ezproxy.concordia.ca/login?url=https://apps.webofknowledge.com>)
- SCOPUS (<https://lib-ezproxy.concordia.ca/login?url=https://www.scopus.com/home.url>)

Concordia has subscription to many publishers, and you can access their journal papers using Find it! @ Concordia (<https://library.concordia.ca/help/using/find-it.php>) or setting it up on Google Scholar (<https://library.concordia.ca/help/using/google-scholar.php>).
